HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Belgian Ambassador in New York to Meet His Sovereigns—Luncheon for Baron Goto

THE Belgian ambassador, Baron de Cartier de Marchienne, and the Baroness de Cartier de Marchienne, are in New York to wait the arrival of the King and Queen of Belgium on Friday, and are staying at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel.

Baron de Cartier has been traveling with Cardinal Mercier, and was with him in Princeton on Monday, when the Belgian prelate was given an LL. D. degree by the university.

The charge d'affaires of Japan, Mr. Debuchi, entertained informally at luncheon at the embassy today, in compliment to Baron Goto, former minister of foreign affairs of Japan, and the members of his suite.

The little company of guests asked to meet them included William Phillips, Acting Secretary of State; Lars Anderson, former American ambassador to Japan; members of the embassy staff, and a few others.

Baron Goto, who is making his second visit to Washington, came on this time in the hope of paying his respects to President Wilson, but found the President too ill to receive any visitors. He and his party will leave town this evening or tomorrow on their return journey to Japan.

Leaves for Mexico.

The Mexican Ambassador, Ignacio Bonillas, left Washington Saturday for Cuernavaca, Mexico, for conference with President Carranza.

Mme. Bonillas remained at the embassy in Washington.

The Charge d'Affaires of the Legation of Uruguay and Mme. de Peral have returned from New York, where they went to meet the former's brother-in-law and sister.

Mr. and Mme. Alexander Herquingio, of Chile, who will spend a month in this country before sailing for Europe.

The marriage of Mr. and Mme. Herquingio took place in Washington, and was attended by a large party of distinguished guests.

Mr. and Mme. Herquingio were Miss Malvina de Peral, and her husband was attached to the legation of Chile at that time. They will make a visit here before leaving this country.

Capt. R. R. Glen, of the British embassy staff, was host at a dinner Monday evening, at the Cafe St. Marks.

Benton McMullin, American Ambassador to Peru and Mrs. McMullin arrived yesterday in Washington and are at the Willard.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt arrived in Washington last night from Hyde Park, N. Y., and will spend the night at the Willard.

Return From Vacation.

Mrs. Cary T. Grayson, wife of the President's physician, and wife of their small sons, Gordon and Cary T. Grayson, Jr., are again at their Washington home with Rear Admiral Grayson. They spent the summer in Connecticut.

Mrs. Joseph S. Frelinghuysen is with Senator Frelinghuysen in Washington for a visit of several days, having come from their summer home near Raritan, N. J. She will close the country place about the middle of October and will then return to Washington, accompanied by her children, for the winter.

Lady Willert, who has been at Marlton, Mass., for the summer, has postponed her return to Washington from October 1 to October 8. She will not take her young son, Paul Willert, to England to place him in school this autumn as she had intended.

Mrs. Katherine Judge, who has been at the Shoreham for several weeks, is moving today to her apartment at 1785 Massachusetts avenue, where she will spend the winter. The apartment has been sublet for the last two seasons.

Miss Judge entertained at dinner last evening at the Shoreham in compliment to Bishop Glass, of Utah and Nevada, who has been attending a conference in Baltimore. The other guests were Col. and Mrs. Campbell King, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Minor, Col. and Mrs. Theodore A. Baldwin, Jr., and Mrs. Emory Winship, Major and Mrs. Walter Schoellkopf, Mrs. Frank Beatty, Miss O'Connor, of California, Col. Edgar S. Gorrell and Ralph Snowden Hill.

Francis P. Garvan, Alien Property Custodian, and Mrs. Garvan have leased the residence 1704 Eighteenth street, which was occupied last winter by Commander and Mrs. Emory Winship. Commander and Mrs. Winship are at the Shoreham.

Mrs. Frank Beatty, wife of Rear Admiral Beatty, is in Washington for a month and is visiting her sisters, the Misses Beatty, at the Decatur.

Admiral Beatty is on duty at Charleston, S. C.

Return From New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Caspar Miller have returned to Washington. Mrs. Miller has been in New York for ten days, and Mr. Miller joined her there after a trip to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Wheeler, of California, who have passed several winters in Washington, have returned here for the season and have an apartment at Wardman Park Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stegoy, of Chicago, are at the Willard Hotel for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler P. Anderson will come to Washington about October 15, and will open their house in Twenty-first street. Mrs. Anderson is still at their summer home at York Harbor, Me.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Riborg Mann, who are temporarily at 1729 Seventeenth street, have leased the residence, 1505 Emerson street, and will take possession as soon as their furniture arrives from Summit, N. J., where MRS. ROBERT HENDERSON, wife of Commander Henderson, U. S. N., after spending part of October in Washington, she will go back to Newport for the winter.

They have been making their home. Dr. Mann is in charge of the army educational extension work.

Delbert-Zane Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Mary Evelyn Zane, daughter of Mrs. Abraham Van Hoy Zane and the late Rear Admiral Zane, to Capt. Arthur Hannum Delbert will be solemnized this evening at 8 o'clock in St. Margaret's Church, the rector, the Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith, officiating. Afterward there will be a small reception at the home of Mrs. Zane for relatives and members of the bridal party.

The church will be effectively decorated in palms, autumn leaves and variegated dahlias, forming an effective background for the rainbow-tinted frocks of the bride party.

Jack Delbert will be best man for his brother and another brother, Alan Delbert, will be one of the ushers. The list of ushers also includes Capt. Coulter Wells, Comdr. Joel T. Boone and Wilson Townsend.

Mrs. Zane and Captain Delbert's mother, Mrs. Zane, her sister-in-law, will be matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Davette Ficklen, Miss Alice M. Carmody, Miss Alice Kemp, of Baltimore, and Miss Harriet Gray, of Annapolis, a cousin of the bride. Miss Gray is taking the place of Miss Adeline Thornton, who was obliged to withdraw from the wedding party by a death in her family.

Among the guests from out of town here for the wedding are Mrs. Edwin Pusey and Miss Pusey, of Durham, N. C.; Mrs. J. C. Gray and Miss Flora Gray, of Annapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kline, of Schoolkill Haven, Pa.; and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pillsbury and Miss Rachel Pillsbury, of Pawtucket, R. I.

Miss Pillsbury is Alan Delbert's fiancée and their wedding will take place next June.

On their return from their wedding trip Captain Delbert and his bride will live in the Octavia apartments, where Mrs. Zane has an apartment. They will be at home there after October 20.

Mrs. Norman James, of Baltimore, entertained a small company at luncheon at the Cafe St. Mark's today. Mrs. James was formerly Miss Isabelle Hagner, of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kauffmann have returned to their residence in New Hampshire avenue, after an extended stay at Camp Percy, N. H.

Mrs. Charles F. P. Richardson, who was Miss Charlotte Fell, gave a luncheon today at Beach Lodge, her villa at Newport.

Miss Dorothy Dennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dennett, returned yesterday to the University of Wisconsin after spending her vacation in Washington. She will come back here in February, after taking her degree in music. Miss Dorothy Dennett, who was in Washington for his September leave, has returned to the Naval Academy.

Col. and Mrs. Theodore A. Baldwin, Jr., are at 1902 Eighteenth street for the winter, having given up their apartment at the Parkwood.

Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan Rutter have opened their house at 2107 Massachusetts avenue for the winter.

Miss Charlotte Lansing McKeever, whose wedding to Charles Preston Knapp, of this city, will take place this evening, will be given in marriage by her brother, Jesse A. McKeever, of Tulsa, Okla.

The ceremony, which will take place quietly at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. K. McKeever, in Holmes Place, will be performed by Rev. George P. Dudley, of St. Stephens Church, at 7:30 o'clock, and will be attended by a small company of relatives and intimate friends.

An informal reception will follow, and Mr. Knapp and his bride will leave shortly after for a brief wedding trip.

Miss McKeever will have as her bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy Knapp, a sister of the bridegroom. Her young cousin, John Edwin McKeever, will act as ring bearer. Ralph Chapin, of Washington, will be best man. Mr. Knapp and his bride will make their home in Washington.

Return From Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ott Craigie have returned to their home in I street, after spending the summer at Indian Neck, Conn.

Mrs. Henry D. Fry, who was visiting Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Glasbrook at their country place at Edgemoor, Md., has come to Washington to close her home in Nineteenth street, which she recently sold.

The marriage of Miss Julia Hurd Lembeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker L. Lembeck, to Dr. William L. Brocius took place yesterday afternoon in the home of the bride's parents, on Thirty-fourth street, in Cleveland Park. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Charles T. Warner, of St. Alban's Church. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a traveling gown of dark blue, tricotine embroidered in gold, with a small black hat and carried Killarney roses. The ceremony was followed by an informal reception, after which Dr. and Mrs. Brocius left for a wedding trip and will later be at home in Detroit.

Miss Mildred Blum, of Washington, will leave town on Friday for New York, where her engagement to Arthur Greenburg, will be announced. Miss Blum has a charming and highly cultivated voice, and is widely known in Washington for her singing.

PERFECT MAYONNAISE

Try this today

2 Eggs, Yolks only
1 pint of Mazola
1 teaspoon of Mustard
1 dash of Pepper
1 teaspoon of Salt
4 tablespoons of Vinegar

Have all ingredients and mixing utensils cold. Mix dry ingredients. Add egg yolks and when well mixed, add 1/2 teaspoon of vinegar. Add Mazola drop by drop until the mixture begins to thicken, beating slowly. As soon as the mixture thickens, add the remainder of the vinegar a little at a time. Now beat in the remainder of the Mazola gradually until all is used. The mayonnaise should be thick enough to hold its shape. Put in a glass jar and cover close. Place in the ice box to be used when needed. It will keep for weeks. Do not stir it when you open it; take out as much as you need with a tablespoon, and close the jar.
